The Essence of Cedar Plank Grilling

Cedar plank grilling is an ancient technique that infuses food with a distinct and irresistible smoky flavor. As the cedar planks smolder on the grill, they release aromatic compounds that permeate the food, creating a depth of flavor that cannot be replicated by any other cooking method.

The natural oils in cedar planks also prevent food from sticking, making it the ideal surface for grilling delicate fish, tender meats, and crisp vegetables. The result is perfectly cooked dishes with a beautiful charred exterior and a moist, succulent interior.
