From the moment you step inside the haunted hen house, you'll be surrounded by a chorus of eerie sounds. The wind howls through the cracks in the walls, the chickens cackle nervously, and the scarecrow creaks and groans in the corner. As you explore deeper into the hen house, you'll discover a series of interconnected tales that will send shivers down your spine.

Each story in this anthology is a unique blend of horror and humor. You'll laugh out loud at the antics of the mischievous scarecrow, but you'll also be terrified by the ghostly chickens that haunt the hen house. By the time you finish the last story, you'll be glad to leave the haunted hen house behind.

About the Author

Cornelia Cackleberry is a lifelong chicken enthusiast and a master storyteller. She has spent countless hours observing chickens and studying their behavior. She has also collected a vast library of chicken-related folklore and legends. 'Haunted Tales From The Hen House: Cocky Doodle Doo!' is her first book, but it is sure to be followed by many more.
