A Childhood Marked by Compassion

Born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu in Skopje, Macedonia in 1910, Mother Teresa's childhood was marked by tragedy and adversity. At the tender age of 12, she lost her father, leaving her with a profound sense of loss and a deep empathy for the suffering of others.

A Calling to Serve

Mother Teresa answering her lifelong calling to serve the poor in India

Driven by a burning desire to make a difference, Mother Teresa joined the Loreto Sisters at the age of 18 and embarked on a journey that would lead her to the slums of Calcutta, India. There, she witnessed firsthand the abject poverty and human suffering that plagued countless individuals.

In 1950, Mother Teresa received a divine inspiration that prompted her to leave the convent and live among the poorest of the poor. This act of selfless dedication marked the beginning of her lifelong mission to serve the marginalized and outcast.

Missionaries of Charity: A Beacon of Hope

With unwavering faith and unwavering determination, Mother Teresa founded the Missionaries of Charity in 1950. This organization dedicated itself to providing compassionate care to the dying, abandoned, and homeless.

Over the years, the Missionaries of Charity expanded its reach to establish orphanages, leper colonies, and hospices in over 130 countries around the world. Mother Teresa's boundless love for the poor inspired countless men and women to join her mission and dedicate their lives to serving the most vulnerable.

A Life of Unconditional Love

Mother Teresa's unconditional love extended to all

At the heart of Mother Teresa's work was her unwavering belief in the inherent dignity of every human being. She taught that love is not a mere emotion but an active force that compels us to reach out to those in need, regardless of their background or circumstances.

Mother Teresa's love extended beyond the physical realm to encompass the spiritual and emotional well-being of those she served. She believed that every person deserved compassion, respect, and the opportunity to live with dignity.

A Legacy of Inspiration and Hope

Mother Teresa's extraordinary life and work have left an enduring legacy of inspiration and hope. In 1979, she was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for her "work undertaken in the struggle to overcome poverty and distress, which also constitute a threat to peace." However, her impact far transcends any single award.

Through her unwavering compassion, Mother Teresa has touched the lives of countless individuals around the world. Her example continues to inspire us to embrace a life of service, empathy, and unconditional love.
