The Berenstain Bears Go Out For The Team is a heartwarming story about teamwork and sportsmanship. Follow the Berenstain Bears as they learn the importance of working together and having fun while playing baseball.

One day, Brother Bear and Sister Bear are excited to try out for their school's baseball team. They practice hard and are both selected to play. But when the team starts losing, the Bears get discouraged. They start arguing with each other and blaming each other for their mistakes.

Papa Bear and Mama Bear help the Bears to understand the importance of teamwork. They explain that everyone makes mistakes and that it's important to forgive each other and work together as a team.

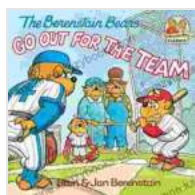

The Bears take their parents' advice to heart and start playing better as a team. They learn to communicate with each other and support each other. And when they finally win a game, they celebrate their victory together.
